ICF-Internal Coaching Certification
ACSTH (Approved Coach Specific Training Hours)

The Internal Coaching Solution for Peak and Sustainable Results is a certificate program for those in talent development who are committed to executing transformational organizational change while positively impacting business results.

Upon successful completion of this program, participants will receive an ICF approved certificate for Approved Coach Specific Training Hours (ACSTH). Graduates may then apply for the ICF Associate Certified Coach Credential (ACC) using the ACSTH application path once they meet the credentialing application requirements.
